LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Wednesday, Feb. 8, 1905.

—Hon. J. G. McCants spent Sunday at home.
—Mr. F. E. Hinnant spent Sunday at his home.
—Mr. W. A. Neil has returned from a short trip to relatives in Florida.

—Mrs. Fayssoux Alexander, of Fayetteville, N. C., is visiting Mrs. J. Q. Davis.

—Mr. W. L. Derrick went to Columbia yesterday on a short business trip.

—Mr. Hugh S. Wylie left yesterday for a short trip to points in the Land of Flowers.

—Mr. J. R. Stewart spent a few days in Longtown last week and returned home Monday.

—Miss Louise Ellison has returned from a visit of several weeks to her aunt at Rowesville.

—Miss Alexa Thompson on her way to Columbia yesterday stopped over for a few hours with her father, Mr. Jno. R. Thompson.

—The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church is arranging for an entertainment for the evening of Feb. 23. A rich treat is in store.

—J. E. McDonald, Esq., is in Columbia, holding the court of general sessions for Richland in the place of Judge Aldrich who is unable to be there on account of sickness.

—Those who have not made their tax returns should attend to this very important duty at a very early day as the penalty will attach after the 20th. Make your returns now.

—Mr. B. F. Cassells, who for several years past has lived in the eastern part of Fairfield, where he was a very successful farmer, has moved to Rutherfordton, N. C., where he will make his home.

—Do not fail to be at your garden work as soon as the ground is in the proper condition. A good garden is possible to every one who will pay the price—thorough preparation and continuous cultivation.

—Mrs. Jno. F. Davis entertained a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon at a charming luncheon in celebration of the first anniversary of her marriage, the decorations being of paper as on the wedding day. It was a most pleasant occasion.

—As many times as it has been published in these columns and in the columns of other papers can it be that people will never learn that newspapers must refrain from the publication of any communications whatever that are not accompanied by the name of the writer?

—Rev. W. B. Lindsay preached at the A. E. P. church Sabbath morning, there being a very good congregation in consideration of the weather. After his sermon he presented the cause of the mission church he is serving Memphis and realized quite a nice little sum. He also preached again at the union service at the same church that evening. Both sermons showed careful preparation and were well delivered. They were sermons that will do good, and won for the young preacher the most favorable comments from those whose good fortune it was to hear them.

—St. Valentine's Day next Tuesday.

—The Quarterly conference of the Blackstock circuit will be held at the Methodist church at Blackstock, Feb. 11 and 12. There will be preaching by Rev. W. P. Meadors, Saturday and Sunday at 11 A. M. at Blackstock, and at 3:30 that afternoon at Bethlehem.

—It is not yet too late to sow oats. As soon as the ground will do to plough again, this work should be done. Spring oats often do fine and this may be the time when they will do well. It will cost but little to make the experiment, as the land will be prepared for some other crop, even if the oats fail.

—Even if the ground hog did not see his shadow on February 2nd and so staid out all day, indicating that the backbone of winter was broken, this chilly season seems to have gotten its backbone together again and seems to have put it up very much on some account, for on Friday evening it began to snow and since then the ground has been covered several inches with snow and sleet, though the cold has not been as severe as it was some two weeks ago.

Carry Your Keys.

Hereafter when you go to the postoffice carry your keys along with you, if you have a lock box, as the unlocking of boxes for those who have keys is against the postal laws. In the future Postmaster Rion says he is going to enforce this regulation strictly.

Death of Orr Sloane.

Orr Sloane died Monday evening at 9 o'clock after an illness of several days with pneumonia. He was 17 years old. His father and mother both died at very short intervals about two years ago. He lived with his grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Boag. His funeral service will be conducted to day at noon at Zion church of which he was a member and the interment will be at the A. R. P. cemetery.

Dropped Dead From His wagon.

Last Thursday while Mr. John Wooten of Blythehood was hauling shingles for the house of Mr. Durham Boney who married one of his daughters only a few days ago he dropped dead from his wagon. For several years Mr. Wooten was a magistrate in his community and he was very generally esteemed by those who knew him best. He leaves a wife and four daughters. He was about 64 years of age.

"Every mason in the quarry, every builder on the shore, Every woodsman in the forest, every boatman at the oar, Hewing wood and drawing water, splitting stones and cleaving sod, All the dusty ranks of labor in the regiment of God, March together toward His triumph, do the task His hands prepare; Honest toil is holy service, faithful work is praise and prayer."

WANTED—One Lady's Second-hand Tailor-made Suit. Apply to P. O. Box 37, Winnsboro, S. C.

Death of Mrs. Boylston.

Mrs. Susan Ann Boylston died at her home on Congress street Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. She was in her 78th year, having been born April 22, 1827. She was a daughter of Dr. William and Mrs. Mary Holmes Cloud, of Beckhamville, in Chester county. Her husband, who was a speaker of the house of representatives in the fifties, preceded her to the grave many years ago. She was the mother of six children, all of whom have passed away. She is survived by two sisters—Mrs. E. F. DuBose of Nelson, and Miss Eunice Cloud of Heath, and two grandchildren—Mr. S. S. and Miss Augusta S. Boylston of Skaneatele, N. Y. Her remains will be interred today at noon in the cemetery of Zion church, the exercises being conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. C. Byrd. She had long been a member of the Presbyterian church and, while it has not been so that she could be a regular attendant at church during the past few years, she has kept identified with the work of the church and the Sunday school by reading to a class of girls and boys every Sunday afternoon, who took a great delight in being instructed by her.

Letter to S. C. Cathcart.

Winnsboro, S. C.

Dear Sir: Father and son; one is glad, the other is sad. Devotee; lead-and-oil.

Mr. Charles Hollenbeck, Fair Haven, N. Y., painted his house Devotee three years ago; his father, same time, painted his house lead-and-oil.

The father's house is all chalked-off; the son's is as good as new. They'll paint the same way next time. Yours truly

26 F. W. DEVOTE & Co

The Weather is All Right.

"The weather is so changeable. One may hear that expression every day. Whether it is raining, or shining, calm or windy, hot or cold, people inform you that the weather is very changeable. Do they want the same temperature the year round? Do they want it dry all the time; or cold? or hot? The fact is that the weather is all right. Without change in the weather the world be an unattractive place. You will please let the weather alone. It is all right."—Carolina Spartan.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION MEETINGS.

Delightful Entertainment Last Monday Evening.—Interesting Program for Meeting Friday Evening.

The Boston String Band of Wilmington came to Winnsboro Wednesday afternoon and delighted quite a large party at the Winnsboro Hotel that evening with their fine music. Through the kindness of a few they were engaged for the meeting of the Winnsboro Public Library Association at the Thespian Hall Friday evening. An invitation was extended the public to attend and there was a full house. With the exception of some general remarks and the enrolling of members the regular business was suspended so that all might have the opportunity of enjoying the music to the fullest. The evening was a most pleasant one indeed.

The next meeting of the Association will be Friday evening at the same place. The program of recitations and music that had been arranged for the last meeting will be carried out at this one. A most pleasant time is assured all who attend. A full attendance is urged not only for the pleasure that will be afforded by the program that will be rendered, but also for the transaction of important business, such as the election of officers and arranging for the purchase of new books for the library.

February Term of Court.

The February term of court will begin the third Monday, Feb. 20. Judge Purdy, who is to preside, comes to Winnsboro for the first time. Great interest will center in this term of court as the case of Supt. Skipper of the Lancaster Cotton Mills for the killing of an operative by the name of Caskey is to be tried here, the case having been transferred to this county. This case will in all probability come the second week and it is generally thought that it will consume the rest of that week, which will make it impossible to try any of the civil cases. This will necessitate a special term of court at a later time. The jurors for this term are:

Is It Right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-to-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house. Ten Thousand Churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paint.

Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from McMaster Co., Winnsboro; C. P. Wray & Co., Ridgeway; Kennedy Mer. and Banking Co., Blackstock.

THAT SUIT

will look as good as new if you will have it cleaned and pressed. I am prepared to do the work for you at the most reasonable prices and I guarantee satisfaction. By having your suit cleaned and pressed it will look ever so much better all the while and will last so much longer. If you have not been in the habit of having your suit kept in good order, begin it now and see how much satisfaction there will be in the improved looks of the suit and in its longer wear. Give me a trial. W. B. B. Durham.

Deaths at Ridgeway.

Mr. G. L. Rosborough, a successful business man of Ridgeway, died at his home there Sunday of congestion of the lungs after a short illness of only a few days. He was 47 years old. For several years he had been an elder in the Presbyterian church. The funeral exercises were conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. J. Mills, and his remains were interred in Ainswell cemetery Monday afternoon. Mr. Rosborough is survived by his wife, who was Miss Strawhorn, and a son five years old. Two brothers, Mr. E. K. Rosborough of Ridgeway, and Mr. John Rosborough of Florida, and three sisters, Mrs. W. L. Rosborough of Albion, Mrs. Janie Turner of Columbia, and Miss Eugenia Rosborough of Ridgeway, also survive him.

At the same hour and place of the burial of Mr. Rosborough, there was buried the remains of little Margaret Elizabeth, the four month old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hogan, who died Sunday morning after a short illness. Mrs. Hogan's father, Mr. Woodruff, of Paoli, came down to the funeral.

Mrs. G. L. Anderson, who lived at Ridgeway, the past year, her husband being the agent for the Southern at that point, died at the home of her father in Bessemer City, N. C., a few days since.

New Rural Routes.

Two new free rural delivery routes have recently been established in this county: Winnsboro No. 2, which goes east to Mr. T. L. Johnston's, then by way of Gaydens, where a pouch is left at the office, on by the Rebo place to the Chester road, and back to Winnsboro. Stover No. 2, from Stover to Asa, makes a circuit of this section of the county.

A third route has been applied for. This will be from Winnsboro out in the Stevenson section and will have many patrons on it.

Fairfield now has twelve routes in it and they are becoming more and more popular with the people, for in nearly every instance they give much increased mail facilities.
